Butler Men's Shop Quitting Business After Decade Here

After ten years of mercantile business in Torrance, Earl Butler of the Butler Men's Shop, is closing out his affairs here and with his family will go to take up residence elsewhere. Mr. Butler has been a resident of the city for 13 years, and has a host of friends and patrons who will learn with regret of his decision to leave the city. Continued ill health of his wife, Mrs. Leona Butler, makes the change necessary.

As a necessary prelude to their departure, Mr. Butler is now putting on a store-wide sale of merchandise and store fixtures which will offer opportunity savings to all who wish to supply themselves with men's wear at a low cost. An announcement of the values to appear and appear in another column of this paper.

As yet Mr. Butler has not decided upon a new location, but will make his plans later when his sale has been brought to a conclusion.
